FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Head: Blackerby Associates qualifies to serve City of Phoenix

Subhead: Human Services Division announces Qualified Vendor List

(Word Count: 220)

PHOENIX, May 7, 2003 – The City of Phoenix has named Blackerby Associates, a Phoenix consulting firm, qualified to provide consulting services to the City Human Services Department, according to Karl Matzinger, Management Services Division Deputy Director. Blackerby Associates has qualified to provide facilitation, strategic planning, organizational management, team building and grant writing services, as needed during the next two years.

“We can hardly wait to start,” said Phillip Blackerby, the firm’s Principal; “We rarely get to work with organizations that are as well-managed as the City of Phoenix. We want to help the City jump to even higher levels of effectiveness.”

Working with Blackerby Associates will be Lynne Brown, also of Phoenix, a specialist in organizational development and human services. “We are a great team, and together we are able to provide the full range of services the City is looking for,” said Brown.
