Reflecting on your hopes, dreams, and vision for Fountain Hills, what would like to see in place five to ten years from now?

- Public transportation: within Fountain Hills...give commuters more free time...easier for kids without horses to get around...for more frequent trips to adjacent communities
- Build upwards: to increase population, to create a greater tax/econ base, also save land space, brings in business
- More affordable for teachers, younger families, everyone, to live here: bring in better teachers, easier for teachers to get involved with extracurricular activities
- Keep arts fairs but have better parking (parking is currently heinous)...also bring in other "traveling exhibitions": because people like this stuff
- Make Fountain largest in the world: defining feature of the town
- Make Fountain Hills more of a family community like Anthem: see previous 2 pages...water park, pool
- Easier to do stuff at parks (more picnic areas and such): especially at Fountain Park, transportation to parks in summer
- Place where our kids can be safe and happy

Reflecting on your hopes, dreams, and vision for Fountain Hills, what would like to see in place five to ten years from now? (Continued)

- Wider roads; parking regulations (maybe alternative side parking like in some big cities): roads get too narrow and accidents become more frequent
- Free public wireless internet; free library cards: to bring us to the 21st century and encourage library use
- Better funding for public programs like schools and libraries: we need better text books and better resources in library
- More side walks and bike lanes: easier to get safely around town
- Sell the mountains behind Sunridge and Copperwynd: to get back the $16 million we wasted on it and use the dollars for other stuff
- Make it easier for town to divert funds to other causes within the town: see notes for specifics
- Younger demographic participating in all town affairs: senior citizens currently have over-inflated vote
- Electronics and book stores: good for economy and people like them
